TALK OF THE TOWN

Fritz Wilhelmson has returned from Concord, where he recently motored on business.

There will be a short rehearsal of the Presbyterian choir at the church Saturday night at 7 o'clock. A large attendance is asked for.

Mrs. Effie L. Webster will hold religious services and give messages at Unity temple, South Barre, next Sunday, Nov. 2, at 2:30 and 7 p. m.

William Kahitille and James Burna-field of Granvilleville leave this afternoon for Detroit, Mich., having obtained employment with the Cadillac Motor Co.

Mrs. Mary Heath and Mrs. Henderson returned to their homes in Boston this morning after having accompanied the remains of L. W. Heath to this city for burial.

Miss Beatrice Wheeler of Hague, N.
Y., arrived yesterday and began her studies in Goddard seminary, pursuing the two years' domestic science and music course. She is a graduate of the Troy Conference academy.

A piece of the street on the curve at the corner of Wellington and Merchant streets is seriously in need of a few repairs. It is barely passable for automobiles. The piece of street is in such a position that probably only stone or cement work will do any permanent good, it being gravelly and easily washed out at that place.

Mario Zanloni, who has been employed at the Palace garage as a mechanic for several months, William Gearin, a grinder of the Jones Brothers company, and Clifton Kelly, a waiter at Jack's restaurant, leave here tomorrow morning in Mr. Zanloni's car for Springfield, Mass., and from there they go to Detroit, Mich., in quest of employment in the automobile factories.

The campaign for voluntary subscriptions to the Roosevelt memorial fund is being conducted in Barre in a quiet way, a number of men going about and giving people a chance to contribute while the granite manufacturers are taking lists among their workmen. It is emphasized that the contribution is to be voluntary, the convassing by the committee being simply to give the people a chance to contribute their dollar, or more, if they see fit. It is stated that the canvass is progressing well and the people are responding generously to the call of the national memorial committee for the funds to erect a splendid memorial to Theodore Roosevelt.

H. W. Shores, while returning from Conway and Stewartstown, N. H., where he has been for the past few days taking pictures of the large steam mills in those places, came across a herd of at least a dozen deer about three miles this side of Groton, which passed in front of his automobile, the lights of the car attracting them. It was a necessity as well as a pleasure to stop the car and allow the animals to pass, each taking a few seconds to look at the machine before going its way. Several stopped a few minutes.
Mr. Shores was taking pictures in those places in the interest of the Lane Manufacturing company of Montpelier. The Paris agent being in Montpelier, a few pictures of the mills were wanted to show the work of that company.

The game between the T. V. M.
Medies and Goddard planned for Saturday, was cancelled yesterday by the Burlington team. For that reason Goddard will not have a game to-morrow.
The Athletic association of the Red and white met yesterday afternoon and chose a manager for the basketball team and a manager for the baseball team. Long of South Hadley Falls, Mass., was chosen as manager of the basketball team and Sibley of Winchendon, Mass., for the baseball team.
Manager Long of the basketball team has already planned several trips, one through western Massachusetts and another through the eastern part of Massachusetts. Both teams will be ready for the squad in a few weeks. It is expected that there will be a team besides the first team that will play under the sub-master's rules.

Quite a tidy little sum will be realized from the Halloween entertainment and social held in the Presbyterian church last evening. The affair was planned and carried out successfully by the young ladies of the choir and the proceeds will be added to the organ fund now accumulating. The farce, "Her First Assignment," produced much laughter in the large audience, and the young women were worthy of the favorable comments heard on all sides as to their delineation of the parts assigned them. The stage properties were well chosen and arranged and the little playlet proved to be entertaining in more ways than one. The real jollification of the evening was to be found in the church vestry, however, where a mystery room, showing the freaks and follies of the day for a slight admission fee. Apples that dangled from strings were soon out of sight when the youngsters arrived. Tea, coffee and cake was served and from the cup of many came the prospective future by Mrs. Cooper. Popcorn balls and home-made candy found ready purchasers. Other features were enjoyed. The young ladies taking part in the farce were: Katie M. Stewart, Hazel L. Mackay, Ruth McKenzie, Christine E. Walker, Ruth Armstrong, Emma Fowle, Violet Clubb, Jeannie Milne and Gertrude Thompson. The decorations in the basement were in keeping with the event.

Regular meeting of local 488, M. P.
U., will be held at the band room Sunday, Nov. 2, at 3:30 p. m. A. E. Milne, sec.

Mrs. Belle S. Fleury of Swanton, after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Craddock of Highland avenue and Mrs.
Evelyn Wales of this city, returned to her home yesterday.

Harold Austin and parents, who for the past week have been the guests of Mrs. Kenneth Nicholson of Eastern avenue, left here yesterday afternoon for their home in Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Austin will spend a week or two more with her aunt, Mrs. Nicholson.
Seaman John Brusa, who has served in the U. S. navy for more than two years, received his discharge yesterday and came immediately to his home in Barre. Seaman Brusa is the son of Mrs. A. B. of Howard street. He passed several months in the war zone on the U. S. S. Leviathan. He has been on that ship during his service. Part of the time he acted as cook.

John Haines, an efficiency agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. of New York, arrived here yesterday to remain for a few days instructing and advising the agents and employees on matters of prudence and efficiency.
With his mission into Vermont Mr.
Haines can boast of having been in every state east of the Mississippi river, as well as several west of it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rowley of 9 Highland avenue started this morning on a trip to Jackson, Mich., having shipped their household goods during the earlier part of the week. Mr.
Rowley has for the past few years been employed at the Jones Bros. plant as night watchman, and he completed his duties recently. In Jackson they plan to reside with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hurry, who left here during the summer. Mrs. Hurry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rowley, and will be remembered as Miss Catherine Rowley.

The home farm of Frank F. and Ella G. Northrop of Williamstown, known as the Herbert Platt farm, located equi-distant from Granvilleville and Williamstown, was sold through the B. A. Perry Real Estate agency yesterday afternoon to Charles Hendry and wife of Plainfield. In this sale Mr. and Mrs.
Hendry purchased the real estate consisting of 135 acres, the tools, stock and crops for a consideration shortly less than $60,000. Mr. and Mrs. Northrop, who plan to take up a residence in northern New York, will vacate soon to Mr. and Mrs. Hendry, who purchase for a home.

John M. Eastman, who has been a radio operator in the U. S. navy for 21 months, has been released and returned to his home on Spaulding street. On his late trip overseas, which was of three months' duration, he was able to visit London and Paris for several days, was in Liverpool at the time of the riot when all American soldiers were ordered not to leave ship after 8 p. m., took a trip to Rheims, Soissons, Chateau Thierry and Belleau Wood, visited the American cemeteries, saw where Lieut.
Quentin Roosevelt fell and was buried and brought home several very interesting relics.

With Halloween night come oftentimes many mischievous young lads from their homes ready to perpetrate some prank which oftentimes proves hostile either in property or health to the person used as the object. For this reason Chief of Police Andrew Mitchell has strengthened his force for this evening and a vigilant corps of special police will be stationed in all parts of the city in case official action is needed. This is only a preventive measure and no trouble is anticipated.
At various places in the city Halloween festivities are planned for this evening. At Spaulding high school a Halloween ball will be given in the school assembly hall to which all students and alumni will be admitted. To the best three costumes prizes will be presented. Another Halloween ball is to be held at Howland hall under the auspices of Gilbertson's orchestra.
Aside from these school dances, plans are planned, so there is sure to be amusement for everyone to-night.

Mrs. Grant Lane of Seminary street was taken yesterday to the Barre City hospital, where she is taking treatment.

Mrs. Maud Venner of Branch street was taken to the Barre City hospital Wednesday and to-day underwent a slight operation.

A nine-pound son, Francis Edmund, jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Craddock at their home on Highland avenue yesterday morning.

George F. DeMerrell of Jefferson street, who is affiliated with the Brown & Carroll Granite company, is passing a few weeks in the west on business.

H. T. Sands, president of the Montpelier & Barre Lighting & Power Co., left last night for Boston, after passing several days in the Barre district on business matters.

On the eve of the most important game of the season to Spaulding high school, Coach Ross found that four good players are unable to play this afternoon in the game against Montpelier high. For weeks the players have been anxiously waiting for this day and now it has arrived the following men, Halfback Brown and End-man, Oliver, Keardon and Densmore, are unable to appear in the lineup. Every one of these players has proved of great value to the team, and it was with considerable chagrin that the student body of the school received this bit of news to-day. But regardless of this fact the students still express confidence in their team. Loraine Den-more, the fullback, who has been out of the game since the contest with St.
Johnsbury two weeks ago, is now in condition and will be used this afternoon. Ellwood, another injured player, is also able to play to-day and with his appearance Coach Ross claims the line will be the strongest it has been during the season. On the substitute bench Clement McMahon, whose football ability was brought out in the backfield of the Montpelier high school team in Massachusetts last season, will be ready to join the ranks of the red and blue and, though he has been at practice for the past week only, he will undoubtedly be used in the contest.
This game was scheduled to have been played to-morrow afternoon, but after a mutual agreement the date was changed to this afternoon at 3:45 at the Lincoln campus.

MONTPELIER

The following cases have been entered in county court on the general docket: Olive Stout Huntington vs.
Charles H. Thompson; George DeBlois, et al. vs. Antony Bianchi, et al.

The juniors and seniors of Montpelier high school played a game of football Thursday afternoon, in which the juniors won by a score of 12 to 9.

The date of the 25th anniversary of the organization of the Montpelier Lodge of Knights of Pythias has been changed by the committee, composed of Arthur Allen, B. A. Sumner and Bert Brown, from Nov. 6 to the 13th.
This change is made because of the fact that there is a Doble meeting at Bellows Falls the night of the 5th, and many of those who want to attend the anniversary wish also to attend the other meeting at Bellows Falls. The committee has arranged a suitable program, which will include the presentation of jewels to those who are now members of the lodge and who are charter members.

H. T. Heaphy has sold his valuable bull, Sir Pieterie Fluela Michillide, to St. Anselms college, Manchester, N. H., and the shipment of the bull was made Thursday. It is understood that the consideration was $1,000.

Auditor Benjamin Gates is in Bennington, making the regular audit of the county clerk's office.
The superior judges met at the supreme court room this morning, pursuant to a call from Chief Justice John H. Watson for a conference upon court matters. While Judge F. M. Butler was waiting for the jury to report in the Long trial, he attended the conference. The other superior judges arrived during the morning.
